

CLIMATE WARS

EPISODE 14: THE RISE OF DARTH MERKEL?

No time ago, in a galaxy not far away, humanity's fight against climate change is in peril. The European Union, key to the UN talks, now faces a threat from within.

Angela Merkel, once a fearless climate warrior, is being lured to the dark side by dirty industries. If she succumbs, next year's showdown: "Episode 15: Copenhagen, a new hope?" is doomed.

But if she heeds the world's call -- for 30% EU targets, without loopholes -- Merkel can unleash the power of the Green Side of the WorkForce, creating clean-energy jobs in Germany, rescuing the EU package ... and liberating the world from the dark side of the economic crisis.
